ParkerStore Announces Partnership with HScott Motorsports with Chip Ganassi

*ParkerStore to Serve as Primary Sponsor for Kyle Larson in Michigan and Texas
XFINITY Series Races and Full-Time Associate in 2015*

CONCORD, N.C. (May 13, 2015) – Parker Hannifin Corporation (ParkerStore), the global leader in motion and control technologies, announced today a partnership with HScott Motorsports with Chip Ganassi. ParkerStore will partner with 2014 NASCAR Sprint Cup Series Rookie of the Year Kyle Larson for two NASCAR XFINITY Series races in 2015, and will continue to serve as an associate sponsor on the No. 42 Chevrolet Camaro.

After originally partnering with Larson when he raced outlaw karts in California, ParkerStore will be the primary sponsor of the No. 42 Chevrolet Camaro at Michigan International Speedway (MIS) in June and Texas Motor Speedway (TMS) in November.

"ParkerStore is very happy to partner with Kyle and the team as the primary sponsor in Michigan and Texas," said Brad Fischer, Director of Global Retail Operations. "It's a natural partnership to promote our brand and to support young racing talent like Kyle. Because of our long history with Kyle, we're especially proud of the success he has achieved and ParkerStore is excited to be along for the ride."

ParkerStore reunited with Larson for the NASCAR Camping World Truck Series season finale at Homestead-Miami Speedway last November, where he won the Coors Light Pole Award and finished second in the race.

"I am really excited to continue with ParkerStore," said Larson. "To be able to team up again with a sponsor from my early racing days is really cool. I know we'll continue to make a great team. I'm really looking forward to their first XFINITY race in Michigan and working with them both on and off the track."

"I'm looking forward to having ParkerStore aboard the No. 42 Chevrolet Camaro this season," added team owner Harry Scott Jr. "We are fortunate to partner with a lot of great companies, and ParkerStore's commitment to Kyle, from his early racing days to last year in the Truck Series to now, is a testament to just how special the relationship is."

Larson will be behind the wheel of the No. 42 ParkerStore Chevrolet Camaro when the XFINITY Series races at MIS June 13 (1:30 p.m. EDT on FOX Sports 1) and TMS November 7 (3:30 p.m. EDT on NBC).
